The Law Admission Test (LAT)

The Law Admission Test (LAT) is a professionally designed and marked selection test developed by the Australian Council for Educational Research (ACER) in conjunction with UNSW Law to assess the types of aptitudes and skills that are critical to success in the undergraduate Law program at UNSW Sydney. These aptitudes and skills include thinking critically, analysing material, and organising and expressing ideas in a clear and fluent way.

Completion of the LAT will enable UNSW Sydney to gain a more rounded view of a candidate's capability to study Law; it will also give applicants the opportunity to demonstrate further their suitability for the Law program at UNSW Sydney. The LAT is offered once a year only.

Participating universities

- UNSW Sydney

The LAT is a requirement for domestic applicants* who wish to study an Undergraduate Law Degree program (UAC code 426000 or Music/Law UAC code 426050) at UNSW Sydney.

*Australian citizens and permanent residents and New Zealand citizens.

Structure and content

The LAT is a written test that allows candidates to demonstrate their aptitude and skills for studying Law at UNSW Sydney. LAT results will be considered in addition to your academic results (e.g. ATAR or equivalent) in the UNSW Law selection process to differentiate amongst the many high achieving applicants.

The LAT consists of two writing tasks. The tasks are designed to measure aptitudes and skills in the areas of critical thinking and understanding and the organisation and expression of ideas.

The LAT does not require any knowledge specific to Law.

Task A: The first task is a written response which requires candidates to critically analyse and evaluate the arguments presented in the material provided.

Task B: The second task is also a written response and requires candidates to process a selection of different types of material (text and graphic) and provide their own arguments about the issue contained in the material.

The LAT is 2 hours in duration including 20 minutes of recommended reading and planning time. It is recommended that candidates spend 10 minutes reviewing each task and planning their response. Pens are allowed to be used during this time.

IMPORTANT NOTE: There is no break between the writing tasks.

The following table shows the structure of the LAT by section and time.

Task	Number of questions	Recommended reading and planning time	Recommended Test Writing Time
A	1	10 minutes	50 minutes
B	1	10 minutes	50 minutes
Total test time: 120 minutes

Assessment focuses on critical thinking and understanding. Each task is scored using a set of specifically designed assessment criteria related to critical thinking and the focus of the particular task. In the criteria, consideration is also given to the way candidates express themselves. Candidates are not assessed on the correctness of the ideas or attitudes they display, but the substance and subtlety of their ideas.

Equity and fairness

The LAT has been developed to assist UNSW Law in ranking applicants in a way that is valid and fair. ACER tests are developed to rigorous professional and technical standards. Test questions are designed and developed by teams of ACER writers, expert in their subject areas and in test construction. All test questions in development are carefully scrutinised in an ongoing attempt to minimise gender, ethnic or religious bias, and to ensure the test is culturally fair.

Appropriate test centres and secure test conditions are ensured by ACER's standardised test administration guidelines and procedures. ACER controls all aspects of the test development, its administration and reporting.

Eligibility for the LAT

The LAT is a requirement for domestic applicants* who wish to study an Undergraduate Law Degree program (UAC code 426000 or Music/Law UAC code 426050) at UNSW Sydney. This includes:

- Those currently enrolled in their final year of secondary schooling (Year 12 HSC or equivalent).
- Those who have already completed their secondary schooling (e.g. those on a gap year).
- Those who are currently studying at university and wish to apply to transfer to UNSW Law (except UNSW students applying for Internal Program Transfer).
- Year 11 students who wish to sit the LAT prior to their HSC year. LAT results will be valid for two years so those sitting in 2018 can use their results to apply for Law at UNSW in 2020.

PLEASE NOTE:

The following applicants are not eligible to sit the LAT:

- International applicants.
- Students in a school year beneath Year 11. This includes students in Year 10 or lower who are studying subjects at Year 11 level or higher.
- UNSW students applying for Internal Program Transfer (IPT) to Law. IPT applicants will be assessed on their UNSW results only.
- Indigenous students undertaking the Pre-Law Program at UNSW. Pre-Law students are assessed under multiple criteria in the Pre-Law Program.

Do not register for the LAT unless you are planning to apply for admission to UNSW Law commencing in 2019 or 2020 AND you meet the eligibility criteria.

*Australian citizens and permanent residents and New Zealand citizens.

Candidates can switch to a full fee registration if the concession registration was submitted in error, or if they no longer wish to claim the concession fee due to ineligibility. Candidates can log into their online account and submit a partial payment to make up the difference between the concession fee and the full LAT 2018 test fee. If your registration is marked as incomplete after the close of standard registrations because you have not submitted your proof of concession, or if your request to change from a concession registration to a full fee registration occurs during the late registration period, you will also be required to pay the late fee.

Applying for Remote Invigilation

Candidates who reside in rural and remote areas of NSW (RA4 and RA5 as per the ABS rural and remote classification site), and candidates who reside interstate and overseas and are not able to travel to a test venue are eligible to apply for remote invigilation for the LAT.

NSW Remote locations

Eligibility for remote invigilation is as per the ABS rural and remote classification site. Candidates must use the ABS classification site to check that their residential address falls within an RA4 or RA5 location prior to submitting an application for remote invigilation. Only candidates who reside in RA4 (remote) or RA5 (very remote) locations in NSW are eligible to apply for remote invigilation.

Interstate locations

All candidates who reside interstate (outside of NSW) and are not able to travel to a test venue are eligible for remote invigilation. Candidates do not need to check the ABS classification site.

Overseas locations

All candidates who reside overseas are eligible for remote invigilation. Candidates do not need to check the ABS classification site.

Questions about eligibility for remote invigilation

Candidates who are unsure about their eligibility for remote invigilation are advised to contact the LAT Office.

How remote invigilation works

Remote invigilation involves sitting the LAT in an appropriate venue under secure testing conditions, with an independent invigilator. ACER will arrange for test papers to be sent to the nominated invigilator and returned to ACER for marking.

Remote invigilation is only available on the main LAT test day: Tuesday 25 September 2018.

Nominating an invigilator

Candidates must apply for remote invigilation as part of the online application process for the LAT.

Candidates are required to source and nominate an appropriate person to perform the role of invigilator for the LAT sitting. ACER WILL NOT source remote invigilators for candidates or provide financial remuneration to the remote invigilators.

ACER will contact the nominated remote invigilation to confirm their suitability to perform the role. Remote invigilators MUST NOT be a blood relative, relative by marriage, friend or person who has any vested interest in the candidate's studies. Nominated remote invigilators MUST speak English and MUST be available to supervise the LAT on the main LAT test day: Tuesday 25 September 2018. An appropriate local test time will be negotiated with the candidate and the nominated remote invigilator to coincide with the main LAT test sitting, depending on the proposed test location.

Supporting documentation will be required to confirm the position of the nominated invigilator. Candidates will also be required to agree to the terms and conditions for remote invigilation as part of the online application process. ACER reserves the right to approve or not to approve all remote invigilation arrangements and the suitability of nominated invigilators.

Recommended categories of remote invigilators are as follows:

- University/TAFE Examination Officer
- Corporate Training Officer
- Librarian
- Minister of Religion or other Religious Leader
- School Principal, Deputy Principal or Teacher
- Doctor, Dentist or Allied Health Practitioner
- Justice of the Peace, Police Officer, Legal Practitioner
- Consular staff if overseas

People listed as authorised witnesses for Statutory Declarations may also be considered as remote invigilators.

Scheduling conditions

Remote invigilation is not available to candidates who are not able to attend the LAT due to foreseeable scheduling issues or the fact that the candidate missed the test day.

Candidates are advised to apply for remote invigilation as early as possible in the registration period. In the case that remote invigilation arrangements are declined, candidates will be required to register for a test centre. Test centres are offered on a first come, first serve basis, therefore it is in the candidate's best interest to apply for remote invigilation arrangements early.

3 BEFORE THE TEST

All applications for remote invigilation arrangements MUST be submitted to ACER no later than 5.00 pm AEST Friday 10 August 2018.

No new applications will be accepted after this date.

Remote invigilation applications are INCOMPLETE until all required documentation is submitted to the LAT Office. Candidates must submit their supporting documentation to confirm the position of the nominated invigilator by 5:00pm AEST Friday 10 August 2018 in order for their remote invigilation application to be processed. Candidates should refer to the Remote Invigilation Process for Candidates – LAT 2018.

All remote invigilation applications submitted for the LAT 2018 must be finalised by the close of late registrations for the LAT 2018: 5:00pm AEST Wednesday 5 September 2018.

Applying for special testing conditions

If you have a disability or other health-related needs which might interfere with your ability to sit the test in the standard manner, you should apply for special testing conditions as soon as possible after registration. Please note if you require access to food, medication, medical equipment or other devices during testing time, due to a medical condition, you must submit a special testing conditions application. All requests are assessed on a case-by-case basis and all reasonable efforts will be made to provide appropriate testing conditions for your needs.

Please complete the following steps:

1. Create an online account and register for the LAT (see page 3).
2. Once your registration is complete you can apply for special testing conditions through your online account. Please fill in the online form and give details about your condition and requested accommodations. All such requests must be submitted no later than 5.00 pm AEST Friday 10 August 2018. If you require special testing accommodations due to a condition that occurred after the application deadline, please contact the LAT Office for advice.

3. After you have submitted the online form, send the supporting documentation for your request to the LAT Office (online via your account) for review.
4. The supporting documentation provided must be from a registered health practitioner. The documentation must be no more than one year old for health-related needs or disabilities other than learning disabilities, and no more than three years old for learning disabilities. Applicants with learning disabilities should submit a copy of an appropriate educational psychologist's report for consideration. If your report is more than three years old, it will still be accepted, as long as it is accompanied by a recent letter from a psychologist stating that the information in the report is still applicable to you as you are today.
5. The supporting documentation from your health practitioner must give a clear diagnosis and information on your condition, indicate the impact of your disability in testing settings and include a statement as to what accommodations your health practitioner feels are appropriate for you in testing settings. All supporting documentation must be typed on the medical practitioner's official letterhead and include the date and title, name, registration number, contact details, and signature of the medical practitioner.
6. Once your supporting documentation is received, a confirmation email will be sent to your registered email address. The LAT Office will contact you if further documentation or information is required for the assessment of your request.
7. All applications will be processed at least two weeks prior to the test date. You will be informed of the outcome of your application in writing from the LAT Office. If approved, you will be able to view and accept your approved accommodations through your online account and you will be required to bring a printout of this page with you on the test day.

All information regarding special testing conditions will be treated confidentially and will not be forwarded to UNSW Law. Invigilators on the test day will be informed of the accommodations provided to you, but not of your condition. If you wish that invigilators be alerted of the nature of your condition, please indicate this in the application process.

Note: There is no possibility of special consideration being given to test results. In no circumstances will scores be adjusted to account for any perceived disadvantage.

Admission Ticket

The Admission Ticket will tell you exactly where and at what time to report on the day of the test. It will also contain your personal details. This ticket is your permission to attend the test centre and a printout must be taken with you on the day. Admission Tickets presented on electronic devices will not be accepted. If you present without an Admission Ticket you will be refused entry.

Notification will be sent to your registered email address when the Admission Ticket is available through your online account, approximately two weeks before the test date. If your identification document details have not been entered in the registration form you will NOT be able to access your Admission Ticket.

Please check your Admission Ticket carefully and contact the LAT Office immediately if there are any errors. The details on your Admission Ticket must match the details on the identification document that you will use on the test day. Only your first and last names are required to match and it is not necessary for your other names (including middle names) to appear on the Admission Ticket. Your other names, if provided when you created your account, will however be printed on the Attendance Rolls given to the test centre supervisors so that they can be checked on the day, should there be any issues matching your Admission Ticket and your identification document.

Before you print the Admission Ticket, check that both sides of the print paper are blank; there should not be any marks on your Admission Ticket. Admission Tickets may be printed in black and white; you do not need to bring a colour printout. Please fill in your identification document number and sign your Admission Ticket beforehand and have it ready with you on the test day.

Do not write anything else on your Admission Ticket at any time before or during the test.

If you have issues accessing your Admission Ticket, you should contact the LAT Office by 5.00 pm AEST Friday 14 September 2018.

Please do not leave this to the last minute. Remember that you will only be able to download the Admission Ticket, once you have entered your identification document details in the online registration form.

Preparing for the LAT

Candidates are advised to attempt the sample test provided for the LAT.

Candidates should try to complete the writing tasks in two hours under 'test conditions'. Once completed, it is often helpful to ask someone else to read the answers and to suggest improvements or alternative approaches to the prompts. (Note that it is not necessary to agree with the prompts). It can also be useful to put the tasks aside for several days before re-reading them to look for ways to make improvements.

Candidates are often concerned about the expected length of the writing tasks. Within reason, the quality of the writing is much more important than the length. Candidates only have 60 minutes to plan and write each task, and the examiners do not have unrealistic expectations of what can be produced in that time.

The following questions will be considered in assessing the writing of candidates:

- What kinds of ideas has the candidate developed in response to the prompt?
- To what extent and how well has the candidate explored the ideas and issues in the prompt?
- Has the candidate developed a structured and organised piece of writing?
- Has the candidate written clearly and fluently?
- Is the language used by the candidate precise and appropriate?

Please note the following:

On the test day responses to the prompts are written directly into an answer booklet given to candidates. Working space is provided to plan the answers. Candidates should write neatly and legibly in pen. Pencils are not acceptable.

The LAT does not require any knowledge specific to Law. Therefore the HSC or other Legal Studies courses will neither advantage nor disadvantage candidate performance in the LAT.

4 ON TEST DAY

ACER and UNSW Law do not recommend or endorse any commercially available courses offering LAT preparation.

The LAT is designed to assess a candidate's ability to generate their own ideas and express themselves through writing. Therefore the most appropriate preparation for the LAT is for candidates to continue with their existing high school or tertiary study and exam preparation which should include practice in formal written expression.

The LAT Office is unable to comment on the relevance or usefulness of commercial preparation courses. It is possible that some commercial preparation courses might provide misleading information or advice to candidates. Neither ACER nor UNSW Sydney conducts LAT preparation courses.

Test date

The LAT 2018 test will be held on Tuesday 25 September 2018. This is the only opportunity to sit the LAT in 2018.

Test centre and arrival time

You will be assigned to a test centre in your chosen city. The exact test centre address and arrival time will be printed on your Admission Ticket that will be available through your online account approximately two weeks before the test (see page 8). You must report to this centre at the time designated on your Admission Ticket. It is not necessary to arrive before the indicated arrival time. The test itself will start as soon as all pre-testing procedures are completed. If you report to the centre after all candidates have been seated in the testing room, you may not be admitted. No latecomers can be admitted once the test has started.

Sitting the LAT by remote invigilation

Candidates approved to sit the LAT by remote invigilation must arrange for a suitable location and invigilator to oversee the test sitting.

Remote invigilation is only available on the main LAT test day: Tuesday 25 September 2018.

ACER will contact nominated remote invigilators to ensure that the LAT will be conducted under secure, standardised testing conditions. Please view the Remote Invigilation Test Room Guidelines to assist with sourcing an appropriate test venue. Requirements for test venues for remote invigilation include:

- An appropriate workstation, free from distractions, noise and prohibited materials.
- Consideration of temperature, lighting and ventilation.
- Timekeeping capability (e.g. visible clock).

LAT test papers will be sent to remote invigilators prior to the LAT test day. Invigilators are required to keep these papers secure prior to, during, and after the LAT test sitting. ACER will also arrange for the secure return of papers for marking.

Candidates and remote invigilators are advised that the conditions for sitting the LAT in a test centre are also applicable for remote invigilation. This includes the requirement for candidates to present for the LAT with a valid Admission Ticket and appropriate photo-bearing identification. The LAT misconduct and permitted testing aids procedures also apply for test sessions conducted by remote invigilation.

Candidates and nominated remote invigilators must also agree to ACER terms and conditions for remote invigilation arrangements. Candidates will be required to complete a remote invigilation declaration as part of the LAT registration process. Remote invigilators will be required to complete agreements including:

- Suitability to Perform the Role of Remote Invigilator.
- Confidentiality and Conflict of Interest Declaration.
- Remote Test Invigilator Code of Conduct.

Timing and order of the test

The LAT consists of 2 hours testing time. In addition, pre-testing procedures will take some time to complete. Therefore, it is not possible to guarantee start and finish times. Care should be taken when making return travel arrangements to allow adequate time at the test centre or the venue selected for remote invigilation (if applicable). You should anticipate being at the test centre for up to 4 hours.

The LAT is a high stakes test administered under secure test conditions. You may not leave the test centre before the full testing time has elapsed. Candidates leaving early will not receive their LAT scores. Once a candidate has departed the test centre it is not possible to re-enter and continue the test.

You may use the bathroom during testing time, but this will not be permitted in the last ten minutes of the test. No additional time will be granted for bathroom breaks.

- Current passport.
- Current photo-bearing driver licence (learner permit, probationary or full licence).
- Current photo-bearing Australian Keypass.
- Current photo-bearing Australian Proof of Age Card.
- Current photo-bearing New Zealand 18+ Card.

The photograph on your identification document must be recognisable as a likeness to you as you are on the day of the test. No other form of identification will be accepted.

If you do not have one of these forms of identification, please allow enough time to organise one before the test date as you will not be able to enter the test centre or sit by remote invigilation without an approved form of identification. Some of these identification documents can take approximately a month to obtain.

Express posting services are available for some of these forms of identification, however, you are strongly advised to arrange your identification well before the test date.

Important note for licences: If you are intending to use your driver's licence as identification and need to renew or update your licence before the test date (for example changing from a learner's permit to a probationary licence or from a probationary licence to a full licence), please ensure that you allow adequate time to receive the new licence. A temporary licence document without a photograph will not be accepted as identification.

Documents that have expired will NOT be accepted under any circumstances. Student cards and photocopies of identity documents are also not acceptable forms of identification.

Your date of birth, first and last name on your identification must match your Admission Ticket details.

If you do not present one of the above acceptable identification documents, together with your printed Admission Ticket, you will not be able to sit the LAT and your registration fee will be forfeited.

What to bring on the test day

You need to bring the following with you on the test day:

- Printed LAT Admission Ticket.
- Current photo-bearing identification document.
- Blue/Black Pens.

Candidates may bring a bottle of drinking water into the test room with them.

Clocks are also provided in the test room. Candidates may wear an analogue wristwatch, but any alarm or stopwatch features must be switched off.

Valuables such as wallets, keys and mobile phones may be placed under the desk during the test. Mobile phones must be switched off and placed face up under the desk. Mobile phones must not be worn on the body and must not be accessed during the test.

Candidates are advised to bring only essential items, as neither the test centre nor the LAT Office can be held responsible for the security of their belongings. There will be only limited space to store bags and candidates will not be allowed to access their bags until the end of the test.

Note: All other items, including but not limited to calculators, dictionaries, tablets, digital watches, smart watches, smart glasses, note paper, pencil cases, rulers, highlighters, audio or recording electronic devices of any kind, are prohibited and their use will be considered an act of misconduct.

Access to food (including sweets and nuts), earplugs, medication or other medical equipment (e.g. support cushion) during the test will only be permitted due to a medical condition and can only be allowed if candidates have been granted special testing accommodations.

Test day issues

Should you wish to query a particular test question on the day of the test, you should alert the supervisor of your concern and submit a written note before you leave the test centre. Your query will be reviewed by the LAT Office and you will be notified of the outcome. Similarly, any complaints relating to the test venue or physical discomfort suffered should be reported immediately to the supervisor on the day so the issue can be addressed without delay.

Security

The LAT is a high stakes test. Therefore ACER, in conjunction with UNSW Sydney, has established security procedures which will be strictly enforced at all times.

Misconduct

Misconduct includes:

- Attempting to take the LAT as an ineligible candidate.
- Breach of any of the security arrangements for the LAT.
- Impersonation.
- Attempting to remove a test book or answer sheet or part thereof, or any notes, from the test room.
- Failure to follow test supervisor's instructions at all times.
- Giving or receiving assistance during the test.
- Creating a disturbance.
- Using prohibited aids (including but not limited to: notes, scrap paper, dictionary, calculator, mobile phone, digital watch, smart watch, smart glasses, audio or recording device of any kind, stationery items other than pencil and eraser, etc.).
- Writing on the Admission Ticket during the test.
- Copying another candidate's work.
- Using the test questions, their content or information about them for purposes other than your sitting of the LAT is prohibited. This includes: publishing the LAT questions or any of their content or information about them on the internet, any digital format or otherwise; and/or passing the LAT questions, any of their content or information about them to third parties.
- The giving of false or misleading information at any stage in connection with your participation in the LAT.
- Infringement of copyright. Copyright infringement includes: performing those rights or authorising the performance of those rights which are granted at law exclusively to the copyright owner. These rights include the exclusive right to reproduce the copyright work in a material form and to communicate that work to the public.
- In any way breaching (as determined by ACER in its absolute discretion) any of the terms and conditions of your registration to participate in the LAT.
- Infringement of any rights (including but not limited to intellectual property rights) whatsoever relating to or subsisting in the LAT or any part or element of it, including but not limited to the concept, structure, administration or conduct of the LAT, the LAT trade mark and any LAT preparation materials prepared or published by or on behalf of ACER.
- Any negligent, unlawful or wilful act or omission by you which ACER, in its absolute discretion, renders you to be unfit to participate in any LAT test, whether or not you are registered to participate at the time of ACER's determination.

CONSEQUENCES for misconduct include cancelling your registration to sit the LAT without any refund, withholding of your LAT test results or disqualification from sitting any ACER test (whether it is the test for which you have registered or otherwise).

It is also possible that the misconduct will be referred to UNSW Sydney.

YOU ARE PUT ON NOTICE that except as expressly provided at law, there is no right to challenge, appeal or seek review of any determination by ACER that misconduct has occurred or in relation to any consequences imposed by ACER for any misconduct. You should also be aware that your misconduct might also give rise to liability on your part to third parties, including but not limited to UNSW Sydney.

LAT results

LAT 2018 results will be released to candidates in mid-November 2018.

LAT 2018 scores can be used for admission to the Undergraduate Law Degree program (UAC code 426000 and also for Music/Law UAC code 426050) at UNSW in 2019 and 2020. Do not register for the LAT unless you are planning to apply for admission to UNSW Law commencing in 2019 or 2020 AND you meet the eligibility criteria.

Candidates will be sent an email notification to inform them that their results are available. Candidates will receive a single score in the range of 0-100, and a percentile band indicating how they have performed relative to all other candidates who sat the LAT in 2018.

An online statement of results will be available to download from your account. There are no pass or fail scores.

Candidates will not be provided with any additional information on the scoring process. All such information remains the property of ACER and UNSW Sydney. A candidate has no right to examination of ACER's scoring processes and methodologies.

Under no circumstances will results be released over the phone, by fax or by email. This is to protect candidate confidentiality.

UNSW will consider your LAT results and your academic results (ATAR or equivalent) in the selection process. The ATAR will be combined with the LAT result on a sliding scale so that those with a very high ATAR require a lower LAT score and those with a lower ATAR require a higher LAT score.

All enquiries regarding admissions should be directed to UNSW Sydney. ACER is not involved in the assessment of applications for admission to the Undergraduate Law Degree programs at UNSW Sydney.

Withholding of results

You will only receive your LAT test score if you have complied with the LAT test policies and procedures. Your score may be withheld or cancelled if ACER learns, either on or after the test day, that you have violated the LAT test policies and procedures. Even if ACER cannot confirm your direct involvement in the breach of policies and procedures your LAT test score may be withheld or cancelled if ACER has reason to question the validity of your scores.

Examples of when the validity of LAT test scores may be challenged are:

- intended or unintended exposure to LAT content*
- contradictory performance on different parts of the LAT
- atypical performance over different LAT test sittings.

* If you attend a coaching course where you are exposed to questions that appear in the LAT, you risk having your LAT score withheld.

Currency of Results

Your LAT result will be valid for two years. For example if you are in Year 11 in 2018 and sit the test, you can use your LAT result for your application to UNSW Law in 2020.

Should you choose to sit the LAT as a Year 11 student, you are also eligible to sit the LAT when you are in Year 12. UNSW Sydney will consider the better of your two results, when making their selection decisions.

Appeals

Unless otherwise required by law or as expressly provided herein, ACER will not entertain any challenges of or requests or demands to review LAT results or any determination by it that any misconduct has occurred or in relation to any consequences imposed by ACER following a determination that misconduct has occurred. Nor is it possible to give special consideration for impaired performance on the day of the test caused by illness or unexpected personal situations.

Any complaints relating to the test venue or physical discomfort suffered should be reported immediately to the supervisor on the day, and in writing to the LAT Office within seven days of the test administration.

You are advised that LAT results are released only after careful calculation and extensive checking. Each LAT writing piece will be examined and marked by two expert assessors. LAT results will be final and no appeals will be allowed.

Re-sit

You can sit the LAT more than once and only your best LAT result will be considered for entry.

Please note the following: The LAT will be offered only once per year and the LAT results are only valid for two years.
